Battery Tray

- not drawn to scale -

Front of motorcycle

Hole for the original airbox

13 mm bolt

13 mm bolt

Hole for the short end of the battery hold down bolt to go through. Prevents the bolt from turning when tightening

13 mm bolt

13 mm bolt

Hole for the long end of the battery hold down bolt to go through. Prevents the bolt from turning when tightening

5 1/2"

5 1/2"

Tab that is bent up from battery tray to keep the battery in place

Side cover mounting hole - should have a rubber grommet

Side cover mounting hole - should have a rubber grommet

Battery hold down bolt. There are two of these: one for the left front and one for the right rear. The "long" and "short" ends should be self explanatory as used in the diagram.

17 mm bolt

17 mm bolt

Battery hold down bracket...should give you a general idea of the shape and where the tabs go.

Hole for the short end of the battery hold down bolt to go through. Prevents the bolt from turning when tightening

Hole for the long end of the battery hold down bolt to go through. Prevents the bolt from turning when tightening

Rear of motorcycle